

Wisdom on Wealth & Worldliness

Psalm 49

Psalm 49's Consequential Wisdom

A. Listen up all humanity. I will offer _____ truth on a longstanding enigma of life. (49:1-4)

B. The godly do not have to be troubled by the pomp & iniquity of this world! (vs.5)

C. No amount of power or wealth a person can have will keep them from _____... (vs.6-12)

1. Every human will walk through the door of death. No life in this cursed world will _____. (vs.9-10)

2. Man's misplaced trust and boastful arrogance gets him thinking he might be able to live forever. His thinking & behavior expose this. (vs.6, 11)

3. Wealth has no power to purchase salvation from death before God... The purchase price to buy eternal life is too high for any human to bear... (vs.6-9)

D. To reiterate, don't be distressed by the fanfare of fools. Though the worldly seem flashy and sure of themselves, their _____ glory will fade in death. (vs.13-14, 16-20)

E. The sure hope in all these dark realities is God, the only one who is able to _____ you from death! In Him one finds honor and life eternal! (vs.14b, 15, 12 & 20)
