A. The _____ of the Book (vs.2-6)

1. You will come to know, understand, and receive instruction on what true wisdom is (vs.2-3)
2. You will grow in character & maturity for navigating life rightly (vs.4)
3. You will increase in becoming wiser & hunger for more wisdom (vs.5)
4. You will become better at interpreting Proverbs and also in handling the conundrums, enigmas, puzzles and problems of life skillfully. (vs.6)

B. The _____ of Wisdom (1:7)

So how might we start?

1. Begin to cultivate a love for “wisdom”....
2. Begin to focus on what “Fearing the Lord” would look like in different situations you face...
3. Begin to recognize that the pursuit of wisdom is not disconnected from the gospel.
